

PRESCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Week of October 8th

Snow is on the forecast for this week, but we will be learning about Fall and leaves. We will collect leaves on and around the playground to do math and art activities. I will also be introducing the letter "D". If you haven't already signed up for Parent/Teacher Conferences, the sign-up sheet is on the door for the 23rd, 24th, and 25th of this month. Conferences are a great time for us to catch up and talk about your child!

REMINDER
