- Art Show March 28th

This week students will be finishing up our Art projects for the Art show in March.

Each student will have at least 3 pieces of art to display at the UW Art museum on March 28th. We will be actioning off class art work as well as local artist artwork as a fundraiser. More info to come.

I will also introduce our new unit, community helpers. Students will learn what a community is, and the different jobs people have in a community.
