

HERE'S the SCOOP

May 4th - 8th

LOOK WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

We learned all about things Spring, why it rains, and why the wind blows.

Next week we are going to learn about the plant lifecycle, importance of bees, and beautiful butterflies.

All moms are welcome for the Mother's Day Tea on Friday, May 8th. I hope you can all come and enjoy a tea party with our class family.

Some of the kids do not have a face sunscreen stick. Please check to make sure your child has one.

This week's academic focus:

Literacy: Review Aa, Ii, Oo and Review Short Uu

Math: taking away, minus sign, equal sign
