

HERE'S the SCOOP

December 13th – December 17th

LOOK WHAT WE ARE LEARNING

I can't believe that we are a week away from Christmas break. This week we are going to transform the classroom into the North Pole. It will be filled with Santa's Workshop, gift wrapping, ornament making, letters to Santa and so much more. Our password for the week is SEE. I hope that your holiday season is full of happiness, peace and joy. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Readiness and Writing: We will work on writing P, B, and 4.

Language and Literacy: We will discover things that begin with P and B and explore compound words.

Word Time: Our vocabulary words for the week are inhale and exhale and empty and full.

Numbers and Math: We will be counting with one to one correspondence, right and left and sides and corners.
